“ My grandfather was the sweetest kindest and such a humorous man who loved his wife and his family with his whole heart. Looking at him and my grandma you could tell every single day that it was true love! I can only hope to be half of the person he was in his life and all the light he brought to the world! I hope him and grandma are now together again 🙏 I love you grandpa

“ I remember the Arnold family from when we worshipped together at Good Shepherd Lutheran in Fayetteville. Dave always had a warm smile and a friendly greeting for everyone. I will keep your family in my prayers.
