“ As I sit here I am flooded with such great memories of my Aunt Audrey.... She meant so much to so many. I remember and always admired her strength.. with such a positive attitude and energy. She inspired me to do that as well. She never judged anyone, she went through life with such a big heart and lots love. She always took time to reach out to anyone in need. I'll always remember how I looked forward to going to Aunt Audry and Uncle Chucks as a kid and an adult. You felt the warmth and love the second you got in the door. Her smile and laugh will always be in my heart and memories. We are better for knowing her. I only hope I can be half the person she was. May God comfort you Aunt Audrey and you rest in eternal peace.....

“ Sweet memories fill me as I think back on so many wonderful times. You had a great sense of humor and I loved your laugh. No matter how much time passed, you were always loving and welcoming whenever we'd see you. I always admired your love and devotion to your family. You will always be in our hearts and you will be missed with every passing day. Rest in peace Aunt Audrey.

“ As I was reading Bonnie's memory of her mom, I remember my mom talking about Audrey's schedule. Our parents were friends for such a long time. Most recently I did play on the Bunco Ladies group and had many conversations with Audrey. She spoke of her family and you knew how much she loved each of you. My heart goes out to Charlie and family so much. May you find comfort in knowing how many people loved your wife, mom, grandmother and sister.

“ As I sat next to my mothers hospital bed I had time to think about what a special gift God had created for us. A wife, a mother, a grandmother, an Aunt and my best friend. Audrey was also a big sister to her baby brothers Doug and Kenny.

My Mother was a loving, selfless, strong and stubborn person that wore many hats.

My Mother was a Seamstress: Growing up she made my dresses for school, outfits for my Barbies and Dolls. She crocheted blankets with matching pillows for each of us. She also made many Halloween costumes.

My Mother was a Hairdresser: On special occasions she would get out those pink squishy rollers and make me look like Shirley Temple. I carried on that tradition, sorry Brittany. The boys got their seasonal brush cut.

My Mother was an Organizer: I remember when we got our camper and headed out west for 4 weeks. She packed it so precise that every nook and cranny was used. That is a skill that she has passed on to her children.

My Mother was an Accountant: Every Sunday she would go thru the grocery ad, make a weekly meal plan. Budget was very important, she would take a red clicker adding device to make sure she didn't go over that budgeted dollar amount. She always had dinner on the table, we all had our assigned seats and you weren't excused until your plate was clean. Jimmy was usually done before Mom even sat down.

My Mother was a Baker: Every Saturday I can remember she baked. When she made Chocolate Chip cookies she would make a small pile of chocolate chips for each one of us to snack on. When holidays came around the house would be filled with the smells of pies, cookies, candy and her gooey sticky buns.

My Mother was a Cleaner: She was meticulous when it came to a clean house. Laundry was done on Mondays and Thursdays. Sheets washed on Wednesday. Vacuuming and washing the kitchen floor on weekends and dusting every Tuesday. Sorry Mom but that stops with you.

One of the most important hats she wore was as Wife: Mom and Dad have celebrated 66 years of wedded bliss. Everyday Dad would always kiss her goodbye and kiss her when he came home. Dad would dry dinner dishes every day just so he could be close to her, talk about her day and just spend time with his sweetheart. Thank you both for being such a wonderful example of give and take, showing us what a supportive and loving relationship should look like.

Thank you Mom, you will truly be missed by all. XOXOXOXOXO
