

Brian Charles Mace

October 5, 2022

We are heartbroken to announce the death of our father, Brian Charles Mace. After a lifetime of being told he shouldn't have made it past his second year of life, he survived 54 years. In those years, he discovered a love for motorcycles, kayaking, cats, and gas station snacks. He was a Mexican food enthusiast who never passed up a good chile relleno. He enjoyed the company of his family above all else. He was always up for a skiing trip, or just a long drive to nowhere, with all of our friends in tow. He will be painfully missed and relentlessly remembered. Brian was predeceased by his mother, Colleen (Shea) Mace; nephew, Collin Mace; paternal grandparents, Geoffrey Charles and Dorothy (Hebdidge) Mace and maternal grandparents, John and Ethel (Koch) Shea. Surviving are his father, Roy C. Mace; daughters, Skyler Mace and Breana Mace; siblings, Jeff (Kristin) Mace and Melanie Mace, and nephews, Logan Mace, Andrew Mace, and Dylan Mace. Service are private and at the convenience of the family.
