

Eleanor L. Abulencia

September 6, 2023

Eleanor "Ellie" Abulencia, 87, of North Syracuse passed away with her husband, Jack, by her side. Born in Syracuse, the only child of the late Ollie and Addie Crowell, she graduated from North Syracuse High School in 1953. First working for the Syracuse Post Standard, Ellie worked for several banks in the Syracuse area, retiring from Lincoln (Chase) and Seneca Savings Banks.

Ellie enjoyed long rides, going to the Adirondacks, especially camping at Gilbert Lake and having fun at Enchanted Forest when the children were young. She enjoyed decorating her home and loved talking to people.

On Tuesday, September 5th, Ellie and Jack celebrated their 69th wedding anniversary.

Predeceased by her daughter, Debra Stage, she is survived by her husband, John "Jack" Abulencia; children, John E. Jr., James M. and Nancy J.

Abulencia; son-in-law, David Stage; two grandchildren, Jacob Abulencia and Jessica (Scott) Fiesinger and three great grandchildren.

Calling hours will be from 4 to 7 pm on Monday, September 11th at Fergerson Funeral Home, 215 South Main Street, North Syracuse. Tuesday, September 12th at 9 am prayers will be at the funeral home before Mass of Christian Burial at 10 am at The Cathedral of the Immaculate Conception, 259 East Onondaga Street, Syracuse. Burial will be in North Syracuse Cemetery.

Donations may be made, in lieu of flowers, to the Alzheimer's Association, CNY Chapter, 5015 Campuswood Dr., Suite 102, East Syracuse, NY 13057 or “ *Nancy & Family,

Although I've only had the pleasure of meeting your Mom/Ellie a few time over the last 10+ years, I know she was a beautiful, gentle person. She will be truly missed by all.
Much love,
Christina*

“ Dear Jack and family

We know Eleanor has lived a wonderful life with a wonderful family. It's now time for her to rest in peace. I think I was 14 when I baby sat John Jim and Debbie. It seems like centuries ago. Nancy and our Susan were born the same year. Time just keeps passing us by as we lose dear friends and family.
