“ Kevin and Kathy -
Our deepest condolences to both of you and your family. It seems like yesterday when our families would visit each weekend throughout the summer in Goose Bay at our cottages and all the fun we had. I always remember your mom as Mrs. B and your dad as the Judge. Your mom's hair and nails were always perfect and she was the epitome of a strong matriarch and beautiful inside and out. Your mom's kindness was contagious and her memory will live on forever. May God bless all of your family and help heal your hearts.

“ Kevin and family, I'm so sorry to find out this morning about your mother's passing. I remember meeting your mother years ago. She had this way with people to make them feel that they were important, cared about and loved. God needed a another angel to help him and he put his arms around her and said " my dear child you're needed home now and your work is done here." Please remember the poem footprints, it helped me lots of time. So truly sorry to all of you, Kelly & Colleen
