

Helen Bulnes Martin

April 22, 1934 - August 20, 2024

Mrs. Helen (Bulnes) Martin, 90, passed away on Tuesday, August 20th. Born in Syracuse, she was the daughter of the late Clarence E. and Edna (Schlemm) Bulnes. She lived on Ross Park until 1945, moved with her family to Connecticut where she graduated from Hamden, CT High School. In 1953, she returned to North Syracuse, where she had lived ever since.

Mrs. Martin was a business school graduate who worked for the North Syracuse Central School District for over 40 years, retiring in 2010.

A long time member of Shiloh Bible Church, she maintained an extensive collection of flowers for the church altar. She played bridge often with several groups of friends and enjoyed reading 'romance' and 'southern' novels. Most important of all, she loved her grandchildren.

In addition to her parents, she was predeceased by her sisters, Carolyn Westwood and Nancy Marinuzzi and by her husband, H. Richard Martin.

Surviving are her children, Robert M. (Maggie J.) Martin and Leslie J. Murphy; grandsons, Zachariah Thomas Martin, Luke Matthew Martin, Caleb Jedrey Martin and Thomas Patrick (Maria Lynn) Murphy, II; great grandchildren, Ella Murphy, Cole Murphy, Ryan Murphy and Gabriel Yang-Martin and several nieces and nephews.

A Celebration of Life will be held Friday, September 13th, 2024 at 11 am at Shiloh Bible Church, 7125 Kirkville Road at Freemont, East Syracuse. Burial will be in Woodlawn Cemetery, Syracuse.

“Helen was a great friend of my mom, Rae DeWolf, they played bridge together for years and got together often for lunch. When my mom’s health was failing, Helen would help me from time to time. She was a wonderful person. Mark DeWolf
