

James R. Jack Jr

January 10, 2026

James R. Jack, Jr., 62, of Liverpool, was born in Cortland to the late James R. and Sondra J. (Dilorio) Jack, Sr. Known as J.R., he was a 27-year employee of Stickley, Audi & Co.

J.R. enjoyed wood working, jigsaw puzzles, cooking and baking. Most important to J.R. was the love of his family and his pups, Tonka, Boris, and Shadow, who passed before him.

Throughout his life, J.R. had many health obstacles beginning at age 15 months with Type I diabetes and in the end, a hard fought and courageous battle with cancer. He never complained about the health challenges he faced over the years and always had a positive outlook on life. We could all learn a valuable and simple lesson from J.R.: live in the moment, enjoy the life you have and remember to laugh.

The most loving, caring, funny brother, and best friend a sister could ever have, J.R. will be missed beyond words.

Surviving are his sister and brother-in-law, Kim E. and Scott W. McMaster; an uncle, Robert Dilorio, and two cousins.

Calling hours will be Thursday, January 15, 2026, from 4:00 to 6:00 pm followed by services at Ferguson Funeral Home, 215 South Main Street, North Syracuse.

Donations may be made to the American Diabetes Association, PO Box 7023, Merrifield, VA 22116-7023.

“ I didn't know JR too well, but I knew him from the school bus, neighborhood, & ignore recent years when he'd walk his white dog around the block down near the dead end where I'm at, we'd chat a bit once in a while. Sadly, I was always in a hurry, as unlike many people, I never just hang outside my house & am usually only seen when I'm coming home from somewhere or leaving to go somewhere (& when the latter I was always running late)! In hindsight, I wish I had made the time to get to know JR better, as he did seem like a very nice person, but up through around the last quarter of 2025, my days were filled to the Gills w/ events & such, & they've only recently changed to less. In any event, I send my sincere condolences to Kim & her family. By the Wonderfully written obit it's apparent that JR left you with a lifetime of good, fun memories; may always keeping them in mind bring you a bit of comfort.
