“ Our sincere sympathies on the loss of Jan. She was one of a kind. I'm glad we were able to spend time together during her term as Matron of Centerville Chapter. We sure did a lot of grocery shopping together for the dinners we catered. She loved to work in the dining room and "mingle" with the guests. Not a lot of coffee got poured, but she made everyone feel welcome with her sense of humor. - Ron, Cathy, and Shannon Barling

“ Janice was a dear friend of mine since 1972. I too, started my career at Kmart in the jewelry department. What fun times we had. With our lives taking different directions we didn't see each other often but our freidship never ended. Bruce, I am so sorry for your loss. Please know that my husband Jim and I are praying for you during this difficult time.
