

Joseph S Tringali

October 24, 2025

Joseph S. Tringali, 84, of Syracuse, passed away on Friday, October 24, 2025. Born in Auburn to the late Joseph and Irma Anna (Oropallo) Tringali, he graduated from Eastern Michigan University.

Joe was employed by the NYS Department of Labor Unemployment Office in Syracuse and Oswego. More suiting to his love of music, he was a business partner in Tringali Piano & Organ with his brother, Bob.

Surviving are his brothers, Ronald A. Tringali and Robert A. (Carol Charette) Tringali, nieces, nephews, great nieces, great nephews, and cousins. In addition to his parents, he was predeceased by a nephew, Jeff, and a sister-in-law, Carol.

Private graveside services will be held in St. Joseph's Cemetery, Auburn.

Donations may be made to the American Heart Association, 5575 Thompson Road, Syracuse, 13214. heart.org

Tribute Wall

FR

“ Joseph was a friend since I first met him in 1965 at the Dept. of Labor. We just hit itt off right away and our friendship endured until his passing. He was part of my wedding party in 1967. I loved our conversations as we had a common outlook on life. He will be truly missed.

Frank J Riccardo - December 22, 2025 at 08:06 AM