“ I met Linda after the merge of Cicero and North Syracuse high schools our senior year. We started talking during band camp when I joined the dance ensemble, and became fast friends when we ended up in the same English class. We kept in touch over the years having long phone conversations to catch up. I'll always remember her dancing to Madonna with carefree joy and some mad skills. She could write a book about her adventures during her time in NYC, but her favorite was a trip she took with her brother Joe to Las Vegas. Even when life got hard she had an optimistic and grateful attitude that I admired. I will miss her personal birthday cards each year and our marathon phone calls. Happy belated birthday Linda, and I hope you are dancing in Heaven with your beautiful smile!

“ We were sad to see that Linda has passed away. We worked with her in Syracuse in the 90's where she was a hard working professional and a valued member of the team. She dreamed of moving to New York City. Our most sincere condolences to the family and friends.
