“ I met Lois in the early 70's. Her son Gary taught French at Queensbury HS . I was the Spanish teacher. Gary invited me to go with him to North Syracuse to meet his family. I met his dad Harold, his mom Lois his brother Greg and a little poodle who ran all over the place. His family welcomed me . I felt very comfortable talking with Lois. She asked me alot of questions, about my education!, about my family. . She was sincere and curious. I felt like she was my mom. I visited her in Florida back in Syracuse north Syracuse . . She was easy to talk with- a good listener and a quick wit. I'll miss her and will treasure the many great memories of our times together. Rest in peace, Lois ❤️🙏😊
