

Mary J. Simson

December 17, 2022

Mary J. Simson, 96, of North Syracuse, passed away on Saturday, December 17, 2022 at Malta House. Born in South Onondaga on July 10, 1926 to the late Jacob and Sina (Sanford) Luchsinger, Mary spent her early years on Onondaga Hill before moving to Canastota where she was a 1945 Canastota High School graduate.

Upon graduation, Mary met and married her husband of 68 years, Elliott, and settled in North Syracuse where they raised their family.

Primarily a homemaker, Mary also worked for several local grocers over a 25 year span, while being a mother and caregiver. She enjoyed reading and socializing with her many friends. Mary was a kind, loving, generous woman who will be missed by all who knew her.

Predeceased by her husband, Elliott, and her sister, Lucy Bakos, Mary is survived by her children, Martin of Bridgeport, Janet Rogers of Florida, Linda (Christopher) Weller of Arizona and Mark of North Syracuse; four grandchildren; five great grandchildren and several nieces and nephews.

Calling hours will be on Wednesday, December 21st from 4 to 6 pm at Fergerson Funeral Home, 215 South Main Street, North Syracuse. A private funeral will be on Thursday, December 22nd at the funeral home followed by burial in North Syracuse Cemetery. Donations may be made to North Area Meals On Wheels, 413 Church Street, North Syracuse, New York 13212.

“ *Dear Marty Janet Linda and Mark
May God Bless your Mother and all of your and your families. Your Mom was a force of energy, full of wit and with a happy giggly laugh. Your Mom was amazing. Mary will be missed here. I Keep all those memories dear; they will wrap you in comfort.

Bless those who mourn, eternal God, with the comfort of your love that they may face each new day with hope and the certainty that nothing can destroy the good that has been given. May their memories become joyful, their days enriched with friendship, and their lives encircled by your love.
