

Paul A. Pelletier

November 25, 2020

Paul Armand Pelletier, passed away a day short of his 56th birthday. He was born in Syracuse, resided in Rome and in Syracuse before moving to Liverpool in 1995. Greatly loved by all who knew him, he was intuitive and respected by those who worked with him. He loved swimming, to laugh, animals and especially being visited by his sister and sharing his favorite candy, M&Ms, with her. Predeceased by his father Paul Henry Pelletier, he is survived by his mother, Linda (Andrews) Dow Pelletier; a sister,

Beth Pelletier; half brother, Douglas Dow and his best friend, John Trimble.

Due to the circumstances of Covid, graveside services will be private with a public memorial at a later date.
