Tribute Wall

“ Dick reclining in a special chair he loved relaxing in or swimming with a hat are some of my favorite memories in life . He loved his sports and especially his wife and treated everyone with laughter and love . Sending all family members prayers . I didn't expect my computer to send me news of his passing but angelic seconds woke me up and I discovered this dear Saints passing news . Deepest sympathy to all and may Hod keep u strong .

“ I have the fondest memories growing up, spending weekends at Uncle Dick & Aunt Pat's house. They had the best collection of army men and a garage full of toys to play with. My brother and I would spend hours in the backyard playing catch, then when it was time to come in Aunt Pat had always made the most amazing dinner for everyone. Uncle Dick was so much fun to be around and always made me feel loved and cared for. I remember we used to sit in his chair in the basement and watch television together and laugh. I will miss visiting and spending time with you.

Love you Uncle Dick,

Gavin

“ My beloved uncle. So many amazing memories with this man who was more like a father to me. Many childhood summer day trips to Sandy Island Beach, and a magical trip to Cape Cod. Every Christmas Eve I looked forward to his visit. I have a love of travel because of Uncle Dick. Our conversations were always fun, engaging and fascinating. His guidance and positive influence shaped my entire life. Rest in Peace Uncle Dick.
