

Ryan A. Silva

June 10, 2023

Ryan A. Silva, 38, of Clay, passed peacefully on Saturday, June 10th, at home. After earning his Series 7 and Series 63 Securities licenses, he worked in NYC and Boca Raton, FL in finance as a stock broker. After returning to NY, he sold cars for several dealerships, including Great Lakes Honda City where he enjoyed selling cars.

Ryan loved anything to do with history, space and especially the extra-terrestrial world. He found happiness in drawing, building model airplanes and flying his drones. He will be remembered for his generous and kind heart and immense love for his three children.

Predeceased by his father, Joe, in 2014, Ryan is survived by his children, Kyleigh, Anthony, and Lucianna; mother, Bonnie Silva; sister, Morgan (Josh Pinard) Silva; many aunts, uncles and cousins and his beloved cat, Elliot.

Calling hours are Thursday, June 15th from 3 pm until services begin at 6 pm at Fergerson Funeral Home, 215 South Main Street, North Syracuse.

Please consider a donation, in lieu of flowers, to In My Father's Kitchen, 501 Hawley Avenue, Syracuse, NY 13203.

“ We are feeling blessed to have seen Ryan a couple of months ago at Bonnie and Laura's wedding. He was enthusiastic about life and happy to see us. His love for his family was obvious. His smiles and kind words with us will be our lasting memory of Ryan and his desire to make us feel welcomed and loved was one of the highlights of our weekend. It was good to see him so happy. Our love and prayers, Nancy and Charlie
