

Sally Gieselman

April 15, 2022

Sally Gieselman, 93, formerly of North Syracuse, died in Fredericksburg, Virginia on April 15, 2022. She was predeceased by her husbands, John F. Wilcox, Bernard H. Gieselman and Anthony E. Aloï. She is survived by sons, John (Deborah) Wilcox of Fredericksburg, VA and Daniel (Lynda) Gieselman of Grand Island, NY; grandchildren, Kristyn, Elizabeth, Samantha and Alexis; great grandchildren, Diego, Mia, Claudia, Taylor, Travis, and Kieran; Anthony E. Aloï's children, Gerald (Mary Beth) Aloï and Therese (Brian) Mullett and grandchildren, Matthew, Meaghan, Mark and Michael. Sally spent her life as a wife and mother of her two sons along with a 34 year career at Carrier Corporation. A child of the depression years, she taught core values of dependable work habits, living within one's means, saving, and always putting "one foot in front of the other" to accomplish tasks, despite any obstacles in front of you. In burying three husbands, she saw sorrow but understood life must be carried on. In the 50's, she lost her husband, John, to cancer. She became a young, single mother of a 3 year old boy. Later, she met Bernard, who became her second husband. Son, Dan arrived and her life became waking early each morning getting 2 boys ready for school. Then, off to Carrier. This was her life in the 50's 60's and 70's. The 80's brought losing Bernard, suddenly without warning. Then, retirement and finding her third husband, Anthony, with whom she spent over 20 happy years with Florida winters and Syracuse summers. Dancing wherever and whenever possible. She was widowed again in 2013, finished her life in the milder winters of Virginia, with a feeling Syracuse, with all of the memories of three families, was really her home.
