

Sharon L. Clayton

September 23, 2022

Sharon L. Clayton, 77, longtime resident of the Village of Liverpool, passed away at home on Friday, September 23, 2022. Born in Syracuse to the late Peter G. and Margueritte A. (Plume) Kesselring, Sharon grew up in Mattydale. She was also predeceased by her brother, Ronald Kesselring.

Sharon loved animals! She was the owner of Fish & Chirps Pet Store on Wolf Street, Syracuse. Later, as a licensed wildlife rehabilitator, she dedicated herself to rescuing and adopting as many injured or orphaned animals as she could. She had an amazing ability to nurse almost any animal back to life.

She was a member of Stars (Syracuse Thunderbirds Aero Radio Society).

Surviving are her partner, Munroe Clayton; a daughter, Kelly Taylor; a son, Timothy Nash; four grandchildren, Nathan de Silva, Fox de Silva, Scott Nash, and Sam Nash; a nephew David Kesselring, and cousins.

Calling hours will be Wednesday, September 28, from 4 to 7 pm at Fergerson Funeral Home, 215 South Main Street, North Syracuse. Services will be at 11 am on Thursday, September 29, at the funeral home, followed by burial in Greenlawn Cemetery, Warners. Please bring sunflowers, black-eyed susans, daisies, and other wildflowers.

Donations may be made to Helping Hounds, 7268 Caswell Street, North Syracuse, NY 13212.

“ I used to love to go to the fish store with Mom. Such a fun place with many memories including letting me feed the fish. 😊 Also all the animals at the house and who could forget all the teddy bears! I will miss her dearly!

“ I went to grade school and high school with Sharon. She was a very nice girl and I'm saying prayers for her family in the loss of her.
