

Shirley A. McBride

April 20, 2023

Shirley Anne (Godden) McBride, 93, of North Syracuse passed away peacefully. Born in Cazenovia, the daughter of the late Stephen and Gladys (Jones) Godden, she was a Nottingham High School graduate who attended Syracuse University.

Shirley worked at Witherill's Department Store in downtown Syracuse as a teenager. Later, she worked as a teller for Merchant's Bank, Route 11, North Syracuse and as head teller for 17 years until she retired in 1982.

With her sister, Janice, she loved to sing in the choir of Erwin Methodist Church. She, and her husband, Donald, loved to Square Dance when they were first married. She loved her family, enjoyed playing cards, watching television and always would make time to read a good book,

In addition to her parents, she was predeceased by her sister, Janice (Godden) Berg, her only son, Thomas McBride in 1987 and her husband of 71 years, Donald, on August 24, 2021. Surviving are her twin daughters, Karen (Robert) Weber and Sharon (David) Klementowski; granddaughter, Julie (Nat) Howland; great grandsons, Andrew Howland and Ross (Ashley) Weber and nieces and nephews.

Calling hours will be from 4 to 7 pm on Monday, April 24, 2023 at Fergerson Funeral Home, 215 South Main Street, North Syracuse. Services will be at the funeral Home at 10 am on Tuesday prior to burial in North Syracuse Cemetery.

Donations may be made to the CNY SPCA, 5785 East Molloy Road,

Mattydale, NY 13211 or to Francis House, 108 Michaels Avenue, Syracuse
13208.

“ I'm sorry to hear about your mother. You sent a copy of her obituary and a beautiful prayer card to my mother Geraldine (Gerry) Burns who sadly passed away in January. I suspect I've met your mother at some point, I do remember my mother always talking fondly of her. I'm sorry for your loss. RIP. Amy Burns
