

Todd P McMahan

March 27, 2025

Todd P. McMahan, 46, of Rochester, formerly of North Syracuse, passed away peacefully on March 27, 2025, surrounded by his family and close friends with a tremendous amount of love. He was such a “happy go lucky” kind of guy that really loved doing favors for people.

Todd grew up being a member of St. Rose of Lima Church. He attended Bishop Grimes High School and graduated from North Syracuse High School. Todd obtained his Associates degree in business from Mohawk Valley Community College and his BA degree in Finance from SUNY Brockport where he was a fraternity member of Pi Kappa Phi-Eta Lambda Chapter. He proudly served our country in the US Army Reserves.

Having previously worked for Paychex and Davie Kaplan Finance Company, he was recently a data operations administrator for 1RDG The Financial Center.

Todd was a big Steelers fan and a life long fan - since age 3 – of Star Wars. His hobbies included vegetable gardening, landscaping, woodworking, aquariums and “bacon feasts”.

Todd was predeceased by his father, James W. McMahan, at age 47. Surviving are his children, Emilia Rose and Flynn James; mother, Kathleen; brother, Doug (Kristen) and sister, Danielle (Matt). Three nephews, Liam, Sean, and Joey also survive him.

A Mass of Christian Burial will be offered on Saturday, May 10th at 10 am at St. Rose of Lima Church, 407 South Main Street, North Syracuse, NY.

Following Mass, in Dominican Hall, the family will receive friends and condolences. Private graveside services will be in North Syracuse Cemetery.
