“ I had the honor and pleasure to work with Bill at Tactair for many years. He was always a honest and dedicated team member. As a FAA designated inspector, Bill always took the right path representing the government fairly, when inspecting our parts. I am sure all the characteristics that made him successful at work translated to his private and family life. Bill will me missed by all who knew him.

“ Bill was a great Aerospace Quality Engineer. He had a deep knowledge of the industry, Federal Aviation Inspection (FAI), Department of Defense (DOD) and Federal Aviation Administration (FAA) regulations, the products we produced, the processes of manufacturing, and assembly. He trained and tutored countless number of co-workers and shared his knowledge without question every day. Not to be overall looked, he was a cool guy. We had several nips of the Irish "recipe." Always three fingers! RIP, and may the Irish blessing follow you always. Sincerely, John Kinsella

“ To All of Bill's Family,

Through out the latter years of Elementary school into our early adulthood Bill was my best friend. We were inseparable most of the time. Bill was either at my house or I was at his house. It is said that you can't choose your family, well I have to disagree, Bill and I were brothers. He was the best man at my wedding and I was his bestman at his first wedding. I have fond and wonderful memories of our friendship that will remain with me the rest of my life. Many people may think that the passing of a loved one on Christmas eve will spoil Christmas for the rest of our lives. For me the thought of Bill's life and friendship will always bring a smile to my face and add extra meaning to the Joy and wonder of Christmas. I take comfort knowing that Bill was received by God on Christmas Eve. What a glorious time to be in God's presence. God bless Bill. I wish all of you much joy and happiness as you remember and treasure the the life we shared with Bill.

“ Bill was one of most positive people I've met. He was always encouraging. He thought of others before himself. The world is a little darker without his light in it. He will be missed. Praying for peace and comfort to the family.

Bill was a long time peer and friend of mine at Tactair. I will miss him as a person and as friend who was there for me at my sons funeral. I will not be there in person to pay my respects for personal reasons. Gods speed Bill and may you rest in peace.
